

24seven is a dynamic rock and roll cover band hailing from Port Coquitlam, British Columbia. With their high energy performances and engaging stage presence, they have become a popular choice for corporate events, festivals, and dance shows. The five talented musicians who make up 24seven are dedicated to delivering powerful, entertaining shows that get audiences on their feet and keep them moving all night long.

24seven's repertoire consists of a mix of classic rock and roll tracks, including hits from the 70s, 80s, 90s, and beyond. They are well-known for their ability to breathe new life into these classic tracks, delivering dynamic renditions that are sure to get audiences dancing and singing along. Their energetic live shows are a testament to their passion for music and their desire to connect with audiences.

If you are looking for a rock and roll cover band that can bring the party to your next corporate event, festival, or dance show, 24seven is the perfect choice. With their infectious energy, memorable live shows, and their dedication to delivering great music, they are sure to leave a lasting impression on everyone who sees them perform. So if you are looking to make your next event unforgettable, be sure to book 24seven today.

"If you want to Rock & Roll all night, and party every day, you want to go... 24seven !"

www.24seven.ca

For booking please contact:

Jeff Garrett – 604-970-6032

24seven@telus.net